Notes of Brooklyn Theatres.

The currain is practically rung down on the current dramatic season, and next week will find but one theatre open. The Park Theatre will celebrate the cease of its most successful season by an elaborate display of bunting this evening.

Capt, Grant Dines His Men.

Police Capt, Donald Grant, of the Sixteenth precinct, was so well pleased at the fine

Severe Labor.

Mrs. Brettson-You surprise me! I thought he was the laziest man in the world.

Mrs. Internan—He is usually, but lately
I've had to work him so hard for gloves and Summer gowns that I actually pity him.

Location of the Mint. [From Time.]

"Arthur told me this morning that dimes vere made at the mint."

"Why, how did you think they were

They All Had to Come to It.

Parson-Did you ever experience a revival

John Montgomery Ward Writes on the Rights of Ball Players - SUNDAY'S

Mrs. Interman-Hector's getting to be appearance of his men at the parade yesterday, regular drudge.

WORLD.

WORLD.

Mrs. Creedoe-Why, Ethel Creedoe! Smok e! I am surprised!

Mr. Lanquet-Excuse me, Mrs. Creedoe. m here.

Humanity Triumphant.

"I would like to rent the large room on the cond floor of your livery stable for the purose of instructing a brass band just organ-ring."

'As the proprietor of the stable I should be glad to let you have the room, sir, but as a number of the Society for the Prevention of Iruelty to Animals it is my duty to tell you hat if you don't get out of here in just ten seconds by the watch I will have you kicked out, you heartless wretch!"

A Shorter Cut to Greatness

(From the Chicago Tribune.)
Caller (with customary smirk of gratificaon)-He's a remarkably fine baby, and just likely as not he'll be President some Proud Father (shaking his head emphati-ally)—I am not going to expose that boy to be uncertainties of politics. I intend to pprentice him to Buffalo Bill.

"My dear," said the Northern bride of a ouisville man to her husband, "let us spend he Summer at Delaware Water Gap."

"Not much!" promptly replied the hor-ified Kentuckian.

No Sadly Missed. [From Time,]

Mabelle-Papa, dear; do you think the me nest would be very lonely and desolate your little birdie girl went away from it? Papa-Say, Mab, has young Spriggins pro osed at last?

"Yes, papa."
"Good. He's got a cool fifty thousand in is own name and old Spriggins will give im as much more when you're married. ou're in luck. Yes, my child, we shall miss or little girl sadly when she goes from us, ut I would not be so felfish as to keep her ith me always. Go, my darling: go and be appy with the man you love."

'Mr. Hydepark," said the lovely girl, lushing, "this is so sudden-I must have

The young man protested his willingness to ve her time. To change the subject, Mr. Hydepark, hat do you think of the annexation idea?"

'I am heartily in favor of it. I think the aburbs ought to come in. I shall vote for mexation."

'Then, Mr. Hydepark," exclaimed the oval Chicago maiden, as she cave him has bral Chicago maiden, as she gave him her and, "I am ready to accept the proposal on just now made for—for—annexation—lease don't. Harry, dear! Give me a chance o breathe!"

Bapid Progress Being Made by the Central Labor Union.

The Organization Committee of the Central

What She Thought.

fr. Billington-Oh. why do you say "No?" Miss Cooington—Because I didn't think you ould take "No" for an answer.

he Oddest Museum in the Country... Read successfully act upon the Liver and Bile, take dozes of Canten's Little Liven Pills.

Surprise-Another Yacht Race at Lurchmont To-Day-Jack Delancey and Tommy Myers Matched-The Hornbacher Ath letic Club's Exhibition To-Night.

The two big athletic events to-day are the Eastern championship meeting of the A. A. U. at Berkeley Oval and the Manhattan Athletic Club games at the Club's grounds. Great interest centres in the Eastern chainpionship meeting. If the track happens to be in good condition some record-breaking might be looked for. Sprinters Sherrill, of Yale, and Lee, of Harvard, will make the 100yard event interesting for Mapes, of Columpia. Shearman, the great broad-jumper of the colleges, is entered in the broad and high the colleges, is entered in the broad and high umps. Willie Day, who is said to have given up after three laps Memorial Day at Bergen Point, not only because he was overtrained, but so that he could save himself for to-day's meeting, will attempt to lower E. C. Carter's three-mile record. The half-mile race between Dohm, of Princeton, and Downes, of Harvard, is looked forward to with high expectations. Champton Shot-Putter George R. Gray will meet Mitchell, Condon and Queckberner.

Condon and Queckberner.

The ease with which Johnny Griffin defeated Jack Havlin last night at the Bay State Club, Boston, caused considerable surprise and made a good deal of money change hands, for Havlin was the favorite. The glove contest only lasted four rounds, and Griffin started things his own way in the first round by a tremendous swing on Havlin's jaw. In the second round Griffin forced Havlin through the rouse by a left and right hand attack, which weakened Havlin so much that Havlin was forced to use clinching tactics in the fourth until Griffin shook himself clear and landed a terrific hit on Havlin's ear which effectually put him hors de combat. Griffin weighed in at 119 and Havlin at 117½ pounds.

Havin's ear winch effectually put him bors de combat. Griffin weighed in at 110 and Havin at 117½ pounds.

As was penerally expected in the East, Jim Corbett, the boxing instructor of the Olympia and Atllede Club, San Francisco, proven met Memorial Day in an old barn hear San met Memorial Day in an old barn hear San and mortages on good security. The meast $25,000 bet by interested parties.

Corbett was the aggressor throughout the four rounds. The Sheriff stopped the fight in the fifth, when Corbett had reduced the Pole to a mere chopping block. It is not likely the men will meet again, as Choynski Corbett. The Memorial Day in the fifth when Corbett had reduced the Pole to a mere chopping block. It is not likely the men will meet again, as Choynski Corbett, and the would be the men will meet again, as Choynski Corbett, but he was no match for Orbett, but he was not he was not arhibition to-night at its rooms in East Third street. The following prominent athletes will appear: J. Gorman and J. Oliver, McGarry and Barnett, Abe Friedell and Swipes the Newsboy, and John Miller, the "Spider."

REORGANIZING THE SECTIONS.

Labor Union has reorganized the Building Trades Section, and the latter will meet hereafter on Wednesday evening of each week.

The Miscelleneous Section will meet on Tuesday evenings. The Printing Trades Section has been merged into the Miscellaneous body. The Committee is engaged in reorganizing the Metal-Workers Section and will probably fix its meeting for Wednesday evenings of each week. The other Sections will receive attentions from the Committee as occasion requires.

The Auditing Committee of the Central Union is engaged in rapidly closing up all the accounts and records of the old Sections, but will probably not be able to make its report for a week or two. The Union will meet to-morrow as usual. The Miscelleneous Section will meet on Tues-

The Sacred River of India-Frank G. Carenter in the SUNDAY WORLD.

Coming Events. Music on the Mall, Central Park, at 4 o'clock to-day.

Lee Sanders Association house warming, 501 Grand street, this evening.

Catholic Young Men's Association, annual Summer festival, Washington Park, June 3.

Mysterious Midnight Assaults Explained in the SUNDAY WORLD.

THE JOKERS' IDLE HOURS. ATHLETIC EVENTS TO-DAY. NEXTWEEK'S STAGE TREATS. PLEASANT WITTICISMS CONCOCTED FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD. On the Planza. On the Union Square and the Union Squ

First Nights at the Union Square and Grand Opera-House — Bartholomew's Educated Horses at the Academy—Prof. Herrmann's Second Week at the Fifth Avenue—McKee Rankin in "The Danites," in Brocklyn.

The principal novelty of the coming week will be "Ardriell," a comic opera of which very little has been said, and of which, consequently, something may be expected. It will be presented Monday night at the Union Square Theatre, which house has been rented by J. A. Norris, the composer of the opera. Miss Louise Paullin will sing the principal female rôle, while the tenor will be Roy Stanton, Miss Lillian Brown (Mrs. J. A. Norris and Mr. Walter Perkins will also be in the cast. The seenes of the opera are laid in the south of France in the year 1820.

At the Grand Opera-House Mr. James W. Morrissy's season of standard opera at popular prices will be began Monday night, when the prices will be began and bunting, and military music will be interpreted by two bands on the late. H. H. J. Jacobs Thirl Academy Profes Academy of the prices will be interpreted by two bands on the savet given the price week can appeal with the price will be consed and min many value prices will be begun Monday night, when the well-known "Mertha" will be sung. Mr. Morcessful. He had engaged Pauline L'Allemand. Emma Berger. Nina Bertini, Athalie Claire. Misa Russell, Frank Baxter. Sig. Enrico Duzenzi, Sig. Mairia and Sig. Taglianietria. During the season "The Bohemian Girl," "Maritana," "Faust" and "The Chimes of Normandy" will be sung.

Miss Rosina Vokes's present bill at Daly's Miss Rosina Vokes's present bill at Daly's Theatre, which includes "Tears," "The Circus Rider," and "Ghastly Manor," will be continued until Thursday, when she will revive some of her old favories. The programme for her leat week is as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Saturday matinee, "Tears," "The Circus Rider," and "A Double Lesson; "Thursday evening, "A Game of Cards," My Lord in Livery, and "A Double Lesson; "Friday and Saturday evenings," in Honor Bound, "My Milliner's Bill," and "A Pautomine Rehearsal," "Clover is doing an excellent business at Palmers's Theatre, and Business Manager B. D. Stevens says that he shall soon put out a sign. "Bonds and mortgages on good security." The music of "Clover" is extremely pretty, but one of the best reasons for its success is the interesting and romantic story that is told, free from complications and from foreign rolities, People want a good librette, nowadays.

Francis Wilson had succeeded in rounding out meothly.

Ferguson and Mack, the popular comedians, will appear at the Windsor Theatre next week in their pantomime comedy known as "Medier pa

Major Charles Rice.

"A Midnight Bell" has passed its "one hundredth night, "the goai which managers seek. It will probably be continued at the Bijou Theatre until July 1. Evgene Canfield's song. "When Pep Was a Little Boy Like Me," goes with a great deal of vim each night, and Little Dot Clarendon's recitations, including "Miss Lillie White's Party," are extremely effective. "A Midnight Bell" has enjoyed much prosperity.

"A Midnight Bell" has enjoyed much prospectly.

Miss Utile Akerstrom begins the last week of her engagement at the Star Theatre Monelay night, when she will again be seen in the title role of "Annettee, the Dancing Girl." Miss Akerstrom has net with success at the Star, and she will undoubtedly return to that theatre next season. Her dancing is particularly commendable, even in these days of Terpsichorean perfection. Her play is a vehicle for her dances.

J. K. Emmet is still at the Fourteeuth Street Theatre, where he will remain for two weeks longer, presenting his play. "Uncle Joe; or, Fritz in a Madhouse. The play could undoubtedly be continued for a much longer time at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, but Mr. Rosenquest has arranged to redecorate his house, which will be closed after Saturday evening. June 15. Emmet a songs have proved highly popular.

J. W. Cofley and his wife will remain at Worth's Museum in East Fourteenth street next

J. W. Coffey and his wife will remain at Worth's Museum in East Fourteenth street next week, as will also Barney Baidwin, the man with the broken neck. Other features in the curio hall will be Dash Kingston. "the natural de-signer:" Beby Bunting, the tiny horse: Capt. Weekey S. Barron, the tattooed man; Andrew Hull, the man with the phenomenal skull; Tex, the cowboy fiddler, who plays reels, ligs and classical music, and Tanaka, the Japanese jug-

Were Anxions to Get Rid of Him-Col. Kopper Says the Captalu Is Deficient in Military Tactics-A Court-Martial Wil Probably Be Held.

The story of the arrest of Capt. Abel W. W. Belknap, of the Seventy-first Regiment, by Cci. Kopper on Memorial Day just before the parade, which was told exclusively by THE EVENING WORLD yesterday, has occasioned a great deal of talk in military circles. It had to come to a head some time or other, as it was impossible for Company B to keep on with such a disaffected feeling towards the Captain existing steadily within it. The whole question in a nutshell seems to be that the Captain needlessly adopted a course which antagonized his men in his ar bitrary rulings at the company's meetings.

rchearsals will be held each day until the opening of the scason.

Dr. C. L. Howard presents "The Octoroon" at Niblo's next week. There will be a competent cast, a large chorus, and some interesting specialties. Nearly a hundred people will be employed in the representation. Following this attraction Niblo's will be occupied by Miss Emily Soldine's adaptation from the French entitled "Jeaine Forter; or, the Bread Carrier," in which Mrs. D. P. Bowers and Mr. F. C. Bangs will appear. "Beside this," said Col. Kopper, "Capt. Belknap has also invited some comment by a Belknap has also invited some comment by a want of familiarity with the factics.

'On one occasion at battainon drill, a regimental officer was within an ace of giving him a reprimand for his inefficiency. This made his men sore also, and there was some little tak about it in the regiment.

'Capt. Belknap, on May 14, called a company meeting and asked the men to express their minds fully in regard to himself. He wanted a vote of confidence from them, but all the company but twelve voted this down.

'Capt. Belknap took the ground that a few malcontents—non-commissioned officers

"Jeaine Fortier; or, the Bread Carrier," in which Mrs. D. P. Bowers and Mr. F. C. Bangs will appear.

"The Lovely Galatea," will be sung at Koster & Bialis Monday evening, with Hilds Thomas as Pygmalion, W. E. Nankeville as Midas, and Gustav Adolf as Ganymede. A musical extravaganza called "A Press Rehearsal" will also be made known. Prof. Klug s giant microscope will reveal some new features. Sampson, the Iron King, is also upon the programme.

At Mr. Ambergs pleasant Terrace Garden in Fiftv-eight street, near Third avenue, business begins to be large as the warm weather approaches. To-night "A Trip to Africa." which has been sung during the week, will be heard for the last time. On Monday the ever-popular." Beggar Student will be presented, to be followed on Tuesday by "The Gypey Baron." Boucicault's old melodrama, "After Dark," has been doing famously at Miner's People's Theatre. It seems to have caught on with all the tenacity of a novelly. It had been almost forgotten and was therefore welcomed. The play is exceedingly well put upon the stage and the scenory is very effective. The "specialty in which Bobbie Gaylor and Hille Myers appear is a great go, essecially with the gallery.

Pat Rooney gives his last performance of "Pat's New Wardrobe" at the Theatre Comique, Harlem, to-night. He has had a good week. On Monday he will be succeeded at Mr. Harta little theatre by a production of the play. "His Natural Life."

The London Gaiety Burlesque Company close their American engagement at the Standard Theatre to-night. They sail for Europe next week. Good-by, Miss Nellie Farren; ta-ta, Mr. Fred Leslie; bon rouge, Miss Hetty Lind, Miss Sylvia Gray and Miss Marion Hood. few malcontents—non-commissioned officers—were at the bottom of the whole trouble.

"To refute this the forty-two men who refused the vote of confidence at the meeting drew up a paper giving their views on the drew up a paper giving their views on the case.

"Eleven non-commissioned officers who signed this were not under arrest by Capt. Belknap, who then intorned me that the company was in a state of insubordination and that he was unable to cope with it.

"I declined, for obvious reasons, to hold a court-martial on the eleven, and thought it good for Capt. Belknap to leave the company for a time. So I appointed him inspector of rifle practice.

"On Memorial Day Capt, Belknap came to me when the regiment was getting ready, and "On Memorial Day Capt, Belknap came to me when the regiment was getting ready, and 'declined' the position of Inspector, saying he meant to command his company. I told him he must obey orders, and warned him of the consequences of disobeying.

"He went away, and ordered First Lieut, Smith, who was marshalling the company, away from his post, bidding the Sergeants to accept orders only from himself. When I heard of it, I simply ordered the Captain under arrest, though I did not take his sword from him nor detain him in the Armory.

"Of course I must now prefer charges against Capt, Belknap, and the Adjutant-General will probably order a court-martial.

against Capt, Belknap, and the Adjutant-General will probably order a court-martial. I am sorry for it all, but do not know how 1 could have acted any more advisedly."

Capt. Abel W. Belknap keeps a drug store at 277 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, Harlem. He says in defense of himself:

"I have been an officer in the National Guard for sixteen years and I did not want to be degraded into inspector of rifle practice.

McKee lankin will occupy the stage of Proc-tor's Theatre next week, giving a revival of "The Danites," the piece in which he wen his first success. The same company now at the Park will support him. Mr. Hankin will appear in his original rôle of Sandy McGee, Miss Mabel Burt will be the Billy Piper, and Dramatist Fred Meader the Parson.

Meader the Parson.

Everything points to a big house for Monday evening at Jacobs' Brooklyn Theatre, when Manager Seymour and Treasurer Hild will take their annual benefit. A large and interesting programme is promised. The occasion is worthy of success. "Some of the non-commissioned officers of "Some of the non-commissioned officers of our company who are eager for promotion, thought I stood in the way of this, and hence their opposition to me. These men have dragged the others into it.

"I could not subdue this insubordination without Col. Hopper's assistance, and that I did not get. But I have appealed to Gen. Fitzgerald, and I know I shall get justice there.

"A good many of those who have signed the paper have assured me that they bear me no ill-will and were simply forced into signing. We shall see how things turn out." The bright particular star of Zipp's Casino, Miss Minnie Schult, will be "benefited" next Thursday evening, when a great big bill will be presented. Proprietor George Huber will sail for Europe on June 20 and incidentally visit the Paris Exposition. Puzzles and Prizes in the SUNDAY

GLANCES ABOUT TOWN.

Beautiful Summer Resort that Did Not Come Up to Expectations. There is a well-known journalist in this appearance of his men at the parado yesterday, that he gave them a dinner at Herman's Hotel, after the parade was finished. For two hours the men feasted and made merry, the Captain, in a neat-speech complimenting them on their fine appearance and saying many nice things about them. At 7 o'clock, all hands reluctantly obeyed the order to fall in and the men returned to their posts. city who is something of a practical joker HE WALKS ON THE WATER. and who depends upon his diminutive size to save his life after some of his waggish Recently he induced three friends to go with him to some out-of-the-way place called Albert Operti, the artist, will present to Kane Lodge, No. 454, F. and A. M., his latest Arctic Tremly or Trembiy, or something like that, Tremby or Trembly, or something like that, which he pictured as a paradise on earth, "Plenty of shooting, flahing, boating—anything you want, I tell you," he stated in his impulsive fashion to his friends, trying to induce them to go induce them to go.

They went. They wish they hadn't.

They went early in the morning; they could not get a train back until late in the afternoon.

There was nothing to shoot, not even a bat There was nothing to shoot, not even a bat:
nothing to go boating on but an old well and a duck pond, although the journaist declared it was a tay or an ocean or something, and the only fish that was caught was a clam that came out of the water and committed suicide. Still the joker says that it will be one day a beautiful Summer resort after he has it fenced in and the ocean or duck pond and old cellar stocked with fish and get a rowboat there.

The Chewing-Gum Habit Is Growing. Among Men.
"Gum-chewing is not the rage among the ladies that it used to be, but it growing worse with the men," said an observant "L" road made?"

Oh, I thought they were made by trades people. For instance, bootblacks make them cleaning boots." conductor recently to an Evening World reporter.
"For instance," he continued "do you see that ancient-looking old white-whiskered fellow in the corner see here?" of religion, sir?
Travelling Man—Yes, once, on board ship in a storm. It looked as if we might go to the bottom any minutes Even the cook

"Yes,"
"Well, he is an oil broker and always sits in that seat, and generally catches my train night and morning.

"He chews piece after piece of the gum. both going up and coming down town, and actually my jawa ache sometimes from watching him. He seems to enjoy the gum.

agh. Now, just take my tip and travel

Then followed where each lady would Through all the Summer be. And there I found as knew just when

And then I thought of all my schemes To get His Grace to call, When that was what he came here for 'Desirable," for sooth, or " fair," As each for wealth was noted! Twas horrid, shameful, beastly, but

I held the paper loosely, and The wind whisked it away, High o'er the fence down to Seth's feet, Where he was raking hay.

He picked it up and read it through, And then he looked at me. Convulsed with laughter I retired

He brought the paper to me there In his straightforward way, His blue eyes biazed, his teeth were set In an alarming way.

"The fortune-hunting puppy: I Will thrash him well, "said he.
"Please don't," said I, "the game's no The powder, don't you see?"

and count the number of jaws a-going up and down, and all on gum."

The reporter did go, and out of about three The reporter did go, and out of about three hundred passengers in the train thirty were masticating in such a way that they could have been chewing nothing but gum.

Five of the thirty were women, two were boys, three girls and twenty full-grown, well-dressed men. Not Up in the Queen's English.

through this train from one end to the other,

American (in London store)—I wish to buy pair of suspenders. Shopkeeper-Never heard of such a thing, American - Isn't this a gentleman furnishing store? Shopkeeper-No, sir: this is a haberdashery and dress supply shop, sir. American retires staggered.

Mme. Carnot, the First Lady of France-

All About the Summer Resorts in the SUNDAY WORLD.

Nothing to Be Proud Of. Miss St. Louis Let me tell you what my brother Robert has done. He's very proud of his great feat — Miss Chicago (interrupting)—Oh, great feet are nothing to be proud of.

What Our Artist Has to Endure.

Mr. Lytewaite-Miss Hightone, how do you like my painting, "Columbus Discovering New York Bay?"
Miss Hightone—Oh, the painting is lovely, but didn't you forget to paint in the of Liberty?

Nellie Bly Visits the Famous Oneida Community-See the SUNDAY WORLD.

Clear the Way

Without less of time when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this ailment is prone to become issting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is the precise remedy to remove the obstruction effectually, but without drenching or weakening the block-aded bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the and of the medical fraternity, sauction the claims of this standard speriont. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidner and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without

RUBBER HOSE

6 cts, per foot up. HOTEL AND STEAMBOAT THE BEST HOSE MANUFACTURED.
AT BOTTOM PRICES.

OLD HOUSE OF GOODYEAR'S

BUSINESS NOTICES ANY ONE CAN TAKE CARTER'S LITTLI LIVER PILLS, they are so very small. No trouble to swallow. No pain or griping after taking. CARPET - CLEANING AT THE GREAT CARPET CLEANING-T. M. STEWART, 32: 7th ave.; send for circular; telephone call 126 21st st

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY. 25c., 50c., 75c., $1 TO-NIGHT. THE OLD HOMESTEAD

PROF. OLDVIEVE, THE FERN SISTERS AND TROOP OF LADY SWIMMERS. Last time to night, 45th st., one door east 5th ave. That all may see this wonderful combination the ad-

WILL COMMENCE AT 8 O'CLOCK. 14TH STREET THEATRE. Corner 6th ave.

J. K. EMMET UNCLE JOE. OR, FRITZ IN A MADHOUSE, NEW SONGS, ELABORATE SCENERY. Gallery, 25c., Reserved, 35c., 50c., 75c., $1, $1.50.

A WONDERFUL PERFORMANCE OF EDISON'S LATEST INVENTION, THE TAIL KING MACHINE, is given boarly, from 10 A, M, 10 11 P. M., THIS WEEK, AT THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG. Sunday 3, 750 persons witnessed the first performance BONT FAIL TO COME THIS WEEK

BIJOU THEATRE. Broadway, near floth st.

Brenings at 8 30. Matieres. WED, and SAT.

101st to 10.4h PERFORMANCES

A MONGHT BELL.

SEATS CAN BE SECURED AT USUAL PRICES.

CASINO BROADWAY AND STH ST THE BRIGANDS.

ALL OTHER ATTEMPTS. Continuous Boof Garden Concert, 7,30 to 12 Nightly Admission 50 cents, including both entertainments.

UNION SQUARE THEATRE. J. M. HILL, Mgr.
RICHARD GOLDEN as OLD JED PROUTY
Matines Saturday. Extra Matines Descration Day.
June 3-First production of the opera ARDRIELL.
TERRACE GARDEN, SETH ST., near 3D AVE.—
Tought last time, Trip to Africa. Monday, Beggar Student, Tues., Gypey Baron, with Seima Kronold.

AMUSEMENTS.

WORTH'S PALACE MUSEU

ANDREW HULL,

THE MAN WITH THE IRON SKULL LODDiestones broken on his naked beed with a sieding, $1,000 challenge for his equal.

8—CANNIBALS OR MAN RATERS ON News been on exhibition before, having been brought direct from their native land and used as models for Mr. Wim. M. Drown's great $150,000 picture, 'Christon Calvary.' They cannot speak our language at all, and they are the same as in the wids of their own land. They dance, sing and play on their own musical instruments.

ments.

GUFFEV AND WIFE will hold hourly leves;
CUFFEV AND WIFE will hold hourly leves;
CUFFEV AND WIFE will hold hourly leves;
TEX BENDER, the fat German, still seeks a wife;
TEX BENDER, the Cowboy Fiddler; BABV
BUNTING, the amaliest horse in the went; BARV
BUNTING, the analiest horse in the went; BARV
BALDWIN, the Broken Neck Man; TANAREE,
JABRASSE TO NOISE, BIRDLE MORRELL, Abbigo;
DULLIE LEONK, Circassian Princess; DARE
KINGSTON, Designer, and the CRITERION OOMEDV COMPANY.
NOTE.—Professionals presenting cards or applying by letter to lock office can secure seats now for PROby letter to box office can secure seats of applying FENSIONAL MATINEE, TUESDAY, June 4.

5HERRMANN MAE HERRIANS

CREMATION. DALMER'S THEATRE, BROADWAY and 30th on MCCAULL CLOVER. OPERA

COMPANY. MADISON SQUARE THEATRE LAUGHING SUCCESS
PEATHERBHAIN "Ureat Hit."; FEATHERBRAIN Companion to "Private See-FEATHERBRAIN Companion to "Private See-FEATHERBRAIN retary." Eves. 8.30. Mat. Sas. PROCTOR'S THEATRE Sat. at 3. COUNTY FAIR. STAR THEATRE.

Stenings at S. Matiness Thurs, and Saturday at S. Matiness Thurs, and Saturday at S. ANNETTE ANNETTE AREESTROM.

DANCING GIRLS

NIBLO'S. 50c. Orth Circle and Bal NICK RUBERTY IN SPECIALTY COMPANY. Next week "The Octorion". DALYSTHEATRE.

D'Evenings princtually at 8. Matines Saturday at 2.
MIRS ROSINA VOKES LOSHON COMPANY.
COMPANY. CIRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Reserved Seata Orchestra Circle and Balcony, 50a

Duncan B. | THE PAYMASTER. | Matine
Harrison To-Day

Next Week Grand English Opera "MARTHA."

BROADWAY THEATRE COR AIST ST. FRANCIS WISSON COMIC OPERA THE AND COMPAND THE AND COMPAND OF THE DAY. OOLAH. KOSTER A BIAL'S CONCERT HALL QUE CO.

MONDAY, JUNE 3. FIRST TIME OF THE LOVELY GALATEA. H. B. JACOBS THIRD AVENUE THRATRE. JUNE 3-LONDON SPECIALTY COMPANY.

H. R. JACOBY (THALIA)
GRAY (THE OLD STEPHENS, BUCKEY, MATINEE TO-DAY. MINER'S PEOPLE'S THEATRE.
The Illinous Cyclone,
BILLIE MYERS,
in a great sparring coutest

DARK, LOR and others.

TONY PASTOR'S NEW 14TH ST. THEATRE. PASTOR'S. Extra Matinge DECORATION DAY. THEATRE COMIQUE, BET, 3d & LEX. AVES in PAT'S NEW WARDROBE.
Next week-HIS NATURAL LIFE, Matines Saturday.

TANDARD THEATRE. LAST NIGHT, London Galety Co., with Nellie Farren and Fred Leelle. To-night, Last Performance, MONTE CREPTO. This Company positively eatls for England June 5. THEISS'S NEW ANTHE YOUND ALHAM THE MONSTER SHORESTROW. Hungarian LADY DANCERS.

BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS. H. R. JACOBS' BROOKLYN THEATRE.

Mainess Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

RESERVED SEATS,

200. 30c.

DADDY NOLAN.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE. NOVALLY.

Evenings Williams' Specialty Co. Management of Thurs. GRAND OPERA-HOUSE, Knowles & Morris, Knowles & Morris, Mainers Wednesday and Saturday.

THE TWO SISTERS.

COL. SINN'S PARK THEATRE,
To-Night, Last Night of the Season,
Mr. McKER RANKIN In
THE RUNAWAY WIFE.

LUCILLE YANKEE

Cupid vs. Culture. In Entertaining Story, with a Rhyme and a

Y WILLIAM EDWARD PENNEY, "THE EVENING WORLD" POET.

Moral, Complete in Six Chapters.

CHAPTER VI. the gate.

lessoms rained a perfumed shower on me-

IMLESSLY I wandered lane and through fervid farewell glow. Into the old pleasant me fate seemed to Then I stood beneath Joy and sorrow, pain and pleasure, strangely the branches of that ancient hollow

In the mist a brilliant sunset glorified the earth below, onward down the Bathing orchard, field and woodland in its

While the evening breeze awak'ning tossed the leaves like child at play. orchard where for And the ever length ning shadows spoke the end of one more day.

mingled in my heart.
As I thought that on the morrow from these scenes I must depart: And again its fragrant Mem'ries thronged across my vision and thought of cousin Seth.

and true 'till death.

o'er the rustic seat,

And I dared not search the pages of my inmost Written there in fadeless letters his name would to me appear. As the evening breeze grew stronger, sweeping

From the platform up above me something fell down at my feet.

Twas was a gilt-edged memoranda, such as Strong but gentle, brave yet modest, sensible With the name stamped on the cover of Sir Mortimer Montagne. When it fell of course it opened, and some loose leaves out d'al fly.

> This of course aroused my interest and I looked, resolved to know In what sort of a connection he my name was

> As I gathered them my own name on one page !

Twas so strange a revelation I could scarce believe my eyes, Filling me with indignation, some amusement, deep surprise.

Twas a long list of addresses of some ladies that he knew. And among those represented I was one and so in nice A B C arrangement they were all put down with care.

After each these words appearing: "Best, "Desirable" or "Fair. Now, Emma, you no doubt may think

These mystic words referred

To grace of face or form or mind,

Which each possessed, he'd heard.

I'm sorry that this pleasant thought were you;

I from your mind must dash, But Emma, these quotations meant Our value in cold cash. For after each name was put down The lady's income, and

What she or her dear pa was worth.

All in His Lordship's hand.

And where he could find me

Expressly, after all. In such cold-blooded, sordid style, To be put down and quoted

It was amusing, too.
This quoting ladies as if stocks Was really something new.

Behind the hollow tree.

I would not hear him through. The Englishman's true character I now had come to know, And Uncle Ezra's words were just, I felt, and told Seth so, The subject led him on to speak In accents and and low.

From Seth a grave apology.

My sly quotation from that speech Of Uncle Ezra's, drew

About my leaving them so seen. Said he: "We'll miss you so," Now. Em, what followed after that, And what we talked about,

I am not going to tell you, though You'd like to know, no doubt.

A similar experience You'll doubtless have some day, And then you'll know how 'tis yourself-I've nothing more to say, Except that I've concluded to Remain here quite a while. And when I go Seth will go, too-Oh. yes, of course you'll smile-For under that old hollow tree, Which more than all beside

Has helped to bring the thing about, A knot is to be tied. I shall be married in the Fall To a true nobleman, Whose pedigree extends clear back

To Adam, the first man; Whose patent of nobility Came with his earliest breath, A Yankee sovereign, tried and true, And his first name is-Seth. Your devoted friend.

LUCILLE STANTON,

[THE END.]